Dear Sister Ledbetter:

The recent Teachers Appreciation Banquet was a great success. Much of the credit, we know is to be extended to those of you who were willing to supply the necessary food. If you could have heard the expressions of gratitude for your work on the part of the teachers who attended, I know you would have been pleased with your effort.

Your willingness to co-operate in matters like this are signs of willingness that we appreciate seeing. The attitude which you displayed and the effort you spent in this matter are deeply appreciated by all of us.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
