Mr. and Mrs. W. B Gadd
Hickory Flat
Mississippi

Dear Folks:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation for the hospitality you extended to me during our recent meeting at Hickory Flat. It was a joy to once again be in your midst and sample your wonderful kindness.

I hope that the work there will continue to make progress and that we will have the opportunity of being together many times throughout the years to come. I hold the people at Hickory Flat as some of my dearest friends and send you my deepest and best wishes.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
