Dear Folks:

I would like to express my belated appreciation for the wonderful hospitality which I enjoyed in your home during the Hickory Flat meeting. Through a mistake I thought that I had already written you but now come to discover that such is not the case. Please accept my apologies for this oversight.

It was especially enjoyable to be with your fine children. You have much for which to be thankful. At the same time, I know that they are what they are because of your willingness to work with them and provide them the proper training. It was pleasant to be in your home again and I hope that we will have the same opportunity many times in the future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
