Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jones, Jr.
1120 John Ross Road
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Dear Folks:

My recent visit to Chattanooga was an extremely pleasurable one. The members of the Green's Lake Road congregation did all within their power to make me feel at home. I don't know when I have been more cordially received.

The opportunity to be in your home was deeply appreciated. The meal was delicious and the fellowship was pleasant. I was especially happy to be able to have lunch with George one day during my visit, to get better acquainted with Volunteer Life and with George's particular work within that company was interesting.

I took notice of your great interest in the work of the Church. I commend you for that and encourage you to continue.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
