Dear Folks:

The meeting at Green Hills would not have been as enjoyable without my association with your fine family. I appreciated the kind invitation and opportunity to eat in your home.

The work at Green Hills is in excellent condition. I know that much of the credit must go to Dorris. He has done and is doing an excellent job. It was an honor to be associated with him and with your entire family during our mutual effort.

I send you all my very best wishes and deepest gratitude for the many things you did to make me feel welcome while in your midst.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

I would appreciate receiving a directory of membership from Green Hills if such is available.
