Mr. and Mrs. Denver Fike
808 Ward Avenue
Caruthersville, Mo.

Dear Folks:

Please excuse my tardiness in writing my appreciation for your many kindness during our recent meeting at Caruthersville. Brother Johnson had promised to sent names and addresses of those with whom I had eaten but did not get the list to me until last week.

I must repeat that I have not enjoyed a more pleasant week in a gospel meeting than the one at Caruthersville. A large part of the credit goes to you and your fine son for the effort which you made to welcome me. The dinner we enjoyed together was excellent. The opportunity to be with the McDonalds on Saturday night was a pleasant one.

Please accept my sincere gratitude for all your hospitality. It was a pleasure to be with you through the week.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
