Dear Folks:

My opportunity to associate with you during the recent meeting at Green's Lake Road was a great joy. I deeply appreciate your devotion to the cause of Christ. Your Christian home and sincere concern for righteousness is an inspiration to me.

To be in your home the first day of the meeting was an excellent way to begin. The meal was delicious and our opportunities of association were enjoyable.

I am deeply impressed with the leadership of the congregation. The Elders are the type men the church must have and the members all seem extremely interested. For all of these reasons, my visit among you was a very pleasant one.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

I appreciated your coming over to Brainerd last Friday night. It was good to see you again.
