Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Brumley
Fulton
Mississippi

Dear Big Dad and Big Mother:

Sue, Mary Beth, and I thoroughly enjoyed our stay in your home during the Fulton meeting. It is always hard to travel with the baby but your many efforts to accommodate us are especially appreciated.

I am so glad that the meeting was as successful as it was. Of course, I am never satisfied with those kind of efforts many others should have been reached with the Gospel. I deeply appreciated all of the many efforts that you all personally expended to insure a successful meeting. I know that a large number of those visitors from night to night were due to your efforts in getting the meeting publicized.

I have not written the various people with whom we ate because my secretary has been on vacation and I have simply not had the time. I have not missed a night preaching since I left Fulton and have two and one-half more weeks to go, but we are in the process of writing those letters now.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

I had already sent the preacher a statement to put in the bulletin before I got your letter.
