Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Black
3700 Connelly Lane
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Dear Folks:

You did much to make my meeting at Green's Lake Road a success. Your interest in the Lord's work and your willingness to welcome me into your midst were certainly appreciated.

It was a pleasure to visit with Brother Black at noon one day and then to see you again at Brainerd recently.

I send you my very best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
