Mr. Kenneth Dye
Church of Christ
Sixth at Adams
McGregor, Texas

Dear Brother Dye:

It is good to know that the McGregor congregation has made its preacher change and that I will have the opportunity of working with you during our coming meeting. I thought that I had already sent the requested mat but I am rushing it with a picture to you in the next mail.

You will find information about me on page 73 of Vol. 2, Preachers of Today. Additional information not found in Vol. 2 includes: 1. I have worked with the Broad Street congregation since February, 1960; 2. I am a graduate in History of Tennessee Tech; 3. I am staff writer for the Gospel Advocate. I will leave Cookeville Sunday immediately following the morning services. I hope to be in McGregor sometime Monday afternoon early and will contact you on arrival. I will be able to preach in the morning services Tuesday through Friday and close the evening services on Sunday evening.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
