Mr. John W. Fields
4035 Wonder Drive
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Dear Brother Fields:

My visit to Chattanooga for the recent gospel meeting at Green's Lake Road was a thoroughly enjoyable one. Much of the credit for this must go to the excellent way I was received and treated by the membership of the congregation. I recognize that you had no little part in that reception.

The opportunity to have lunch with you during the week was appreciated. I was encouraged to learn of your great interest in the Church and your apparent willingness to do all within your power to see things are done. There is no doubt that there is a great future in store for the congregation there with men of your caliber and willingness carrying on the work.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
