Mr. Jerry Porter
6 Tavnish Drive
Glasgow S. 4, Scotland

Dear Jerry:

With great pleasure I talked with Brother Paul Hunton recently about this summers campaign in Scotland. Brother Hunton and Brother Walker were high in their praise of the work you are doing there. I remember with much pleasure my few opportunities of association with you in earlier years.

This letter is written to encourage you in the work you are doing. I know that you have made and are continuing to make sacrifices to work in that country. We are mindful of them and send you our prayers and best wishes. Please send me the regular bulletins from Glasgow.

It is a joy to read of the work you are continuing to do. I know that the future holds many more triumphs for Christ. in Scotland.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
