Dear Brethren:

I would like to express my appreciation for the consideration which you gave me in your recent quest for a preacher. I have been impressed for sometime with the fine work being done by the congregation there. The North West is indeed a fertile field and your labors for the Lord do not go unappreciated.

I extend my best wishes to you, to Brother Boring, and to the entire congregation for a very successful 1962.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
