Dear Dr. Thomas:

It is with extreme regret that I have had to decline the gracious invitation of the McGarvey Fellowship committee for the summer study at ACC. It is my profound hope that this wonderful program will be conducted next year. I am arranging my 1963 schedule so that the five weeks involved will be open. I recognize that another application will have to be made and hope that it will receive the same kind reception which my 1962 application received. I am hindered this year by two meetings, the Blue Ridge Encampment and a wedding in which I must personally participate.

We send you our best regards and wishes for a successful summer program with the McGarvey Fellows.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
