Dear Brother Whittle:

The Elders of this congregation considered your letter concerning the Cario, Georgia work this past week. They demonstrated an interest in the needs of the Church in Georgia but made no decision about this matter.

At the present, we are supporting R. C. Walker in Radford, Virginia, $541 per month. If a congregation in Georgia had its building and preachers home, we might be interested in a little less support for a full-time man. If you know of such places in Georgia, we would appreciate hearing from you.

We appreciate your interest in this field and send our best wishes in your work at the college.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
