Dear Brother Barber:

It was a genuine pleasure to be associated with you during the recent meeting at Huber Heights. I sincerely feel that the Brethren are privileged there to have you working with them.

Please extend my appreciation to your wife for the excellent meal she prepared. It was very enjoyable being in your home.

I will be sending you the catalogue requested as soon as I receive an extra copy. I am sending under separate cover the book requested which will amount to $2.10. I am sorry that we were not able to work together more during our meeting but look forward to our association in the future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
