Dear Brother North:

It would be impossible to assess the value of your visit last Sunday to highly. Everywhere this week Brethren have congregated they have discussed the growth and future of this congregation. We know that this is due to the faith which you inspired by your visit last Sunday evening. Brother Howell has already written with reference to the group of men who will be coming Sunday afternoon to visit the camp. It now appears that some of the wives will also be coming in order to visit and gain ideas from your Bible School work.

Once again let me offer our profound gratitude for your coming our way. Your visit effected even more remarkable results than we had anticipated.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
