Dear Brother North:

Cookeville has been "topsy-turvy" since your visit last Sunday. The members here at Broad Street were overwhelmed with the fine presentation. We all feel that your coming at this particular time has been or will be the catalyst for all our plans.

I thoroughly enjoyed my visit with the Madison brethren. Every effort was made to welcome my wife and me. It was a real pleasure to have Coach Brimm in the audience. He toured your plant with Joe Higgins and remarked one point, "you fellows really have us topped in your Bible School work." Bill needs some fundamental studies in the New Testament. I have every hope for him becoming a Christian.

Again let me express my profound gratitude for your co-operation and interest in our work. We have no doubt about the success of your appearance.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
