Mrs. G. W. Summers
Colora, Maryland

Dear Folks:

It was good to hear from you and know that you are settled in your new home. I hope that you are enjoying the work and I know that you will be of great assistance to the brethren in that area.

I regret your leaving this area and I am sorry to have to accept Rosemary's resignation as secretary of our local FHC Alumni Association. We are looking forward to a great meeting on February 26 and will miss your presence. I send you my best wishes for the coming year.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
