Mr. W. R. Fisk
804 Second Street
McGregor, Texas

Dear Brother Fisk:

Your letter concerning our proposed meeting for this summer has been received. It was good to hear from you and know that all is well with the congregation there. I understand that Brother Crook is leaving but I had hoped that he would be there for our meeting.

The meeting as scheduled will begin on Monday night, July 9 and continue through Sunday night, July 15. According to present plans, I will be coming alone. Sue and I now have a 23 month old daughter, Mary Elizabeth, and travel is somewhat difficult with the entire family.

We send you our best regards and highest anticipations for the coming meeting.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
