Mr. Finis Caldwell Jr.
Church of Christ
Center Avenue and Walnut Streets
Dickson, Tennessee

Dear Brother Caldwell:

Please accept my sincere apologies for not abiding by our common agreement of last June. I returned to Cookeville and after some discussion felt that any move on you behalf at that time would be inadvisable.

Since then, we have engaged in a Bible Teachers Training Clinic and as a result the congregation had associations with Brother Elmer Howell. The congregation was impressed with him to the extent that the elders felt it advisable to bring him here to work with us.

My inexcusable tardiness was only in regard to notifying you of the condition that I met on returning from Rector. I know that you will do a splendid job in Dickson. Your training, experience, and attitude has made you a very valuable man in the Lord's work. We send you our best regards.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
