Mr. Earl Fox
3652 Pittsburg Avenue
Dayton 6, Ohio

Dear Earl:

I deeply appreciate the invitation of the brethren at Haney Road to come and participate in the first gospel meeting in your new building. When I talked with you recently, I was unaware of the negotiations then going on between the Elders here at Broad Street and the Monterey congregation for a mission meeting in late September. It now appears that I will have to spend another week in addition to my present schedule in a mission meeting at Monterey.

In view of that development plus the five other meetings still to be conducted this year makes me have to reject your kind invitation. I had wanted very deeply to come and be with you in that effort. I know that the work you all are doing is outstanding. Please explain to the brethren the situation and express my deepest regrets at being unable to be with you. I will look forward to seeing many of you during the meeting at Huber Heights which begins December 30.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
