Dear Brother Butler:

I have learned that your preacher will be leaving soon. Last week I preached in a meeting for the Caruthersville, Missouri congregation. The preacher there Don Johnson, P. O. Box 894, is planning to leave by September or earlier. Brother Johnson has finished six years of work with that group. All of my observations during the meeting indicate that he is a sound and capable worker. You may be interested in contacting him.

I hopefully await our meeting which begins Monday night, October 8 and continues through Sunday night, October 14. It will be a pleasure to work with the fine group there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
