Celina, Tennessee

Dear Brother Hayes:

I received your letter with its information concerning Brother Amos Stone with deepest regrets. Brother Stone was a fine man and an excellent worker in the Church. I know he is being missed by all of you.

I have scheduled the meeting at Beech Bethany for September 16-24, 1963. The meeting will start on Monday night and conclude on Tuesday night of the next week.

I send you my best wishes and I would like for you to convey my respects to Brother Stone's family.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
