Dear Brother Anderson:

The date for our 1963 meeting that you suggested in your last letter is acceptable to me; however, you failed to state whether the Brethren there wanted a one week meeting or a 10 day meeting. Though I prefer a one week meeting, I will abide by the decision of the Brethren there. If a one week meeting is desired, I will be happy to start it on the 3rd Sunday night, August 18 and continue through the next Sunday August 25. If a 10 day meeting is desired, I will be glad to start the meeting on Monday night, August 19 and continue through Tuesday night, August 27.

You may reply with the decision of the Brethren in the near future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
