Mr. C. G. Morrow
Church of Christ
Benton, Kentucky

Dear Brother Morrow:

Your kind note received yesterday is deeply appreciated. To know that you took the time to make such an effort causes me to feel that the sentiments expressed are genuine.

It is my feeling that you correctly appraised Brad. His efforts in one of the most neglected fields of church activity will bear fruit for years to come.

Let me urge your continued dedication to this type of activity. From Brad, I learned that you are highly capable and interested in the educational program of the Church. I hope that the future offers other opportunities for mutual associations.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
