Dear Bobby:

I send you and your wife my very best regards. It was a genuine pleasure to become acquainted with you earlier this year and to know of your interest in the Church and your desire to move to Cookeville.

I have just talked to Mr. Newport of Bowser Briggs. He has suggested that the situation at Bowser is still not changed. He did indicate that the possibility of hiring more draftsmen did not look to favorable at this point. I regret to send that report but realize that you had rather know the true situation than anything else.

We had hoped that you would be soon moving to Cookeville. Your interest in the Church and the willingness of you and your wife to work with young people would have been a great asset to us here at Broad Street.

If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
