Bloomington Springs, Tennessee

Dear Brother Flatt:

It is my understanding that the brethren at Union Hill want me to conduct a gospel meeting there next year. I have scheduled the meeting to begin Monday night, July 29 and continue through Sunday morning, August 4, 1963. The reason I must close the meeting on Sunday morning is that I have a commitment of long standing to begin a meeting that night, August 4 in Mississippi. It is my feeling that we can have a good meeting even with closing it on Sunday morning. You can discuss this with the Brethren there. If they prefer to make a change you may let me know. I send you my very best regards. It was good to see you and hear Leamon at Baxter recently.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
