Dear Sister Laws:

I would like to recommend James Barnes for the consideration of the congregation there if you are interested in having a man this summer. I told James that I was not aware of your situation at the present but that you might be interested in having him work with you. Our associations with him in this area, this is his home, have been of such a nature as to recommend his work.

We send you our best regards, We hope that Louise is feeling fine and that you are in good health. Give my best wishes to the entire congregation.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
