Mr. A. P. Conger
Smithville
Tennessee

Dear Brother Conger:

I am flattered at the kind invitation extended to me by the Elders of the Smithville congregation to consider the work there. I have followed with interest your work during the last few years and know the congregation to be a sound one.

I regret to suggest that I am unable to consider your invitation at this time. The work here is in a situation that would preclude my leaving or at the best make it inadvisable.

I am in a position to recommend Brother Oliver Cunningham who now preaches for the Tyner congregation in Chattanooga. Brother Cunningham did a very successful work here in Cookeville at Willow Avenue and has done an outstanding job in Chattanooga. His address is 6813 Robin Drive, Chattanooga, Tennessee. I also understand that Brother Raymond Crumbliss, 105 Joyce Avenue, Chattanooga 5, Tennessee who now preaches for the Red Bank Congregation in that city is interested in moving. I can also recommend Brother Crumbliss.

I am looking forward to our meeting together in 1963. My records show that this meeting will begin on Monday night, September 9 and continue through the following Sunday night, September 15, 1963. I will look forward with interest to our labors together at that time.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
