

2-15-1962

From: Robert E. Hartmann (2/15/62)

Robert E. Hartmann

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Hartmann, R. E. (1962). From: Robert E. Hartmann (2/15/62). Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/4800>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

See us about truly MODERN Insurance coverage

HARTMANN INSURANCE AGENCY

5763 BRANDT PIKE
DAYTON 24, OHIO

Life
Auto
Fire
Casualty
Bonds

ROBERT E. HARTMANN, MANAGER

PHONE: BE 3-3813

February 15, 1962

Mr. John Allen Chalk
542 North Washington Avenue
Cookeville, Tennessee

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Clark Peters, 6315 Taylorsville Road, Dayton 24, Ohio.

Dear Brother Chalk:

Thank you very much for writing to the Peters relative to their visiting the Huber Heights congregation during your meeting.

We think that follow up work like will tend to create a very lasting impression on those who attend.

We are still looking forward with great enthusiasm, ^{to} your working full time with our group in very near future.

Donald Morefields' wife was baptized last week - cottage meetings with her (Bro. Barber) resulted in her being baptized. His mother-in-law is also attending our services regularly. This is surely a very good location for a congregation. Wonderful future, if we do not hedge in our responsibilities.

We now have 69 members - also four (4) members were transferred,
Our treasurer (Bryan Bogle) to Lincoln, Col. and the Hendons to Raleigh, N.C. They have located the church there and like their new congregations. This is to be expected with this end of Dayton, in fact all over D ayton. We still continue to grow in numbers, even tho we have some to transfer.

Best wishes to you and yours,

Most sincerely,

Robert E. Hartmann

REH/sp