Dear John Allen:

It was nice to talk to you this morning, and I'm pleased with the assignments you are giving. I'll send along what I've done so far, and if I have another mailing which could arrive in Abilene before you're due there, I'll send it to Rachel for her to hold for you as I have done this one.

If you have no objection, I'll review THE RISE OF THE MERITOCRACY and Orwell's 1984 for you next, since they are closely related and concern trends in our current society. Then I'll send along some excerpts from MIPROF FOR MAN (Anthropology) and possibly something from a paperback called, THE GREAT RELIGIONS. By that time I should have re-read Fromm's THE ART OF LOVING and can get a review and pertinent quotes on that to you. Also, remember, you must have a refresher on THE GREAT INQUISITOR.

I sent along the Christian Missionary magazine. Hope you got it without delay. It only costs $1.00 a year and so I'm going to ask Clois for a subscription. Too, as soon as I can determine the exact title and publisher of the Billy Graham book, I'll ask for it and try to have it mailed directly to you.

We must not forget your two talks, "Answering Relevant Questions from the Pulpit" and "Christ Calls the Total Man." I'll try to send material along as I find it.

Last of all, I have made a friend whose husband is librarian at Texas Western. She is getting a faculty card for me and I'll try to use that source to learn something about Claudia Procula and Pointus' family's fate.
