Dear Brother Bates:

I regret being unable to spend more time in Lubbock during your recent lectureship. It was a distinct honor to appear again and to speak to such an excellent audience. I appreciate your check for my plane fare and consider this a very generous gesture on the part of the college.

I did not have an opportunity to pick up my copy of the lectureship book. Would you be so kind as to see that I do get one in the near future. Thank you for inviting me. It was a pleasure to assist in a small way.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
