Dear Brother Chalk:

By all standards the recently concluded lectureship at Lubbock Christian College was the best one in terms of the quality of the program and the interest it aroused. We are grateful for your valued participation in this growing program and the careful preparation you made.

Please advise me if you did not receive your copy of the lectureship book. Our girls at the registration desk did not identify all of the speakers and several did not register.

We welcome your suggestions for improving the program. Please visit the campus whenever you can.

Gratefully yours,

Jack W. Bates
Lectureship Director
