Dear Sirs:

Less than one week ago I received a notice of pending legal action from your company respecting file number AX5424. More than one month ago the unit I am being billed for was returned to your office. It was my understanding that this unit was available for inspection. Upon inspection I decided not to purchase it.

My attorneys, W.P. Flatt, Sr. and W.P. Flatt, Jr., P.O. Box 507, Cookeville, Tennessee have been advised of your warning. In view of my actions in returning the merchandise in question more than one month ago, I am prepared for whatever legal action is necessary to prevent the collection of this unjust debt.

Your pseudo-official notice with a Washington postmark is completely out of character with sincere businessmen selling a reputable product.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
