Dear John Allen:

I'm delighted to know you can be present for our Campus Seminar April 29 & 30. As I suggested over the telephone, we have scheduled you for the Saturday noon address. Your assigned subject is, "The Campus Today, The World Tomorrow." I believe you can put the topping on our entire two days' work in that address. You can't realize how much your presence and interest means at this stage of our proposed program of campus evangelism. You'll be interested to know that the responses are encouraging to the seminar and we are to have representatives present from Campus Crusade for Christ and Inter-Varsity Fellowship.

Pray daily for this great meeting. I'll be corresponding with you further about it.

Sincerely yours,

Jim Bevis
Minister of Education

We are thrilled that you have accepted our invitation to participate in the Campus Seminar, April 29 and 30 in Arlington, Texas.

We are enclosing a partial list of the objectives we will be discussing during the two-day seminar. We hope to fill in the program for each objective. Please bring any ideas you have for ministering to the college campus.

You'll be pleased to know that representatives from Campus Crusades for Christ and Inter-Varsity Fellowship will be present to share the secrets of their success.

It is important that we get the enclosed information sheet completed and returned as soon as possible.

We would appreciate receiving part or all of your expenses. This will help us in having the first meal prepared. Ha! Make checks out to College Christian.

A copy of the revised program is enclosed. God bless you as you prepare for this meeting. Pray that great things will be planned and that God will be glorified.

Yours for taking Christ to the campus,

Jim Davis
Minister of Christian Education
