Dear Marian:

I was happy to get your letter and to get filled in on all the latest news around Cincinnati. It is such an encouragement to know about the continuing interest in the work of the church on the part of you and your husband. I hope your mother is still in good health. She is a real inspiration to all who know her and certainly to me.

Give Mary Reed my regards. It sounds as if she and her family are having a difficult time. Is she attending church regularly?

I appreciated your enclosing a letter from Eudilla. I am returning it to you in this letter. I couldn't follow all her remarks, but I do hope whatever she alluded to in the closing paragraphs of the letter is a matter that is not too serious. Thank you for writing. We hope to see you before too many months.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
