Dear Pat;

I have just read your article in the October issue of Action. Sue and I both were extremely humbled by the attitude you displayed in that article. I had heard earlier of your public confession at the Englewood Church and was so happy to see you recount it in your own words for the readers of Action.

Sue and I pray for you and Shirley many, many times. We are so grateful for the Christian witness that we believe you have offered through the years in many, many quarters. We are aware that you must have undergone a tremendous burden and that you must have had to bear many, many responsibilities created by the fact that you would not renounce your Lord. We rejoice with you and know that by this new re-commitment that you will sense the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit and that you will be able to live a victorious Christian life. We are so grateful for what you mean to so many, many of us, and we send you our prayers, our personal support, and our desires to work with you in future efforts for Christ.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
