Mrs. A. M. Burton
5050 Hillsboro Road
Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Sister Burton:

We have noted with deep sympathy and sincere regret the death of your husband. Brother A. M. Burton, while not a close personal friend of mine, was always the object of deep gratitude from me. I appreciated so much the wonderful contributions and the outstanding leadership he provided the work of the Church around the world and especially in the Nashville area.

During our six-and-a-half years in Cookeville, we came to know personally A. M. Burton II and his wonderful family. They have spoken so glowingly of both of you so many times, that Sue and I felt very close to you. This made Brother Burton's death all the more sad for us. But, in the words of the Apostle Paul, "We sorrow not as those who have no hope."

Accept my sincere personal concern and sympathy. Sue and I send you our prayers and best wishes.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
