Dear John Allen:

I have finally received my copy of your book and want you to know how grateful I am. I have enjoyed your sermons immensely and appreciate the fine way in which your book is organized. My congratulations to your wife, ha.

Our work here continues to progress. With the conversion of Antonios Reusses and his son, Dines, we have much additional help. Both can speak English well.

I hope you are enjoying your work and I'm quite sure you are being kept busy. This week-end is my turn to go to Izmir, (Smyrna) Turkey. Also, some American brethren are here in Thessalonica and wish to begin a congregation. There certainly is a lot of work to be done.

Thanks again and may God bless and be with you.

In Christ,

Bob Carey
