Dear Brother & Sister Casada:

Thank you so much for the hospitality you displayed by inviting me into your home during the recent Wynnwood Hills gospel meeting. I thoroughly enjoyed our meal together. It was delicious; and, above all, the company was very rewarding.

I was happy to notice your genuine involvement in the work at Wynnwood Hills. I know it is because of families like yours that the congregation has a bright future indeed.

Thank you again for your hospitality and kindness. It was my pleasure to be in your home.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
