Mr. John Allen Chalk
542 North Washington Avenue
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear John Allen,

Again I would like to express to you my deep appreciation for the leadership you took in getting together the Nashville retreat. It really packed a wallop and I feel sure that none of us can ever be the same again. I was concerned about the feeling and reaction expressed by Brother Baxter. I was very sorry to have to miss the evening meal and the session which followed. I hope that it all ended on a proper note.

Since I am to be at the Lubbock Christian Lectures I would like to have an opportunity to talk with you for a while and get your assessments as to what you think will be the real outcome of the retreat. I shall be looking forward to such a meeting if it can be arranged.

Sincerely,

Ray Chester
