Dear John Allen:

I am enclosing the suggested program for the Gospel Advocate Dinner. You are the featured speaker. I want fifteen minutes of dynamite. I hope that you will dwell on the amount of filth that is now being printed and given to the minds of the people in this country, and that the Gospel Advocate is one answer to this if we will circulate it. You will have other ideas but we really want a speech that will lift them off the floor.

Your friend,

Willard Collins
