Mr. & Mrs. Wyatt Sawyer
4511 Woodstock Drive
Dallas, Texas

Dear Brother & Sister Sawyer:

What a wonderful way to climax an excellent week by coming into your home and enjoying your hospitality and warm friendship. I thoroughly enjoyed my meal with you following the Sunday evening service at Wynnwood Hills. Please accept my apologies for having to break up such a pleasant evening too soon.

It was my good fortune to be with you during the week. I counted it a real pleasure to become better acquainted with both of you. I am convinced that Wyatt's ministry is a highly significant one, and I know that he depends on an excellent Christian woman for his wife and companion.

Thank you so much for all both of you did to make my week a very pleasant one in Dallas and with the Wynnwood Hills congregation.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
