Dear Mr. Ekeberg:

Thank you so much for attending one of the services during our recent Campaign for Christ in Madison. It was a pleasure to become acquainted with you and to learn a little about your work at the Wisconsin School for Girls, and at the men's prison as well. I did everything I possibly could to make a place in my schedule on Friday to visit the school, but I did not find the necessary time. I appreciate so much your inviting me; and I would have been so happy to take advantage of the opportunity, but circumstances would not allow.

I do appreciate your attending our services and do hope that in the future the ministers with the Madison Church of Christ will have an opportunity to visit the school and offer their services to you if there is any way they can help. I have given your name to Mr. David Desha and Mr. Bob Fuller, both of whom work full time with the Church of Christ in Madison.

Enclosed are sermons from a recent series on our international radio program called Herald of Truth. You may hear this program every Sunday morning on Radio Station WIBA in Madison, at 8:05 a.m. If there is a time in the school's schedule for such a program, we would be happy for you to use it and call the attention of the inmates to it. These sermons, as you will notice, constitute a special series we did on "youth." We hope to deal even more directly with some of the modern day problems of youth in the coming months. Any material or suggestions you might have about this type of series from your own personal experience or reading would be deeply appreciated.

It was a pleasure to become acquainted with you. I regret not having the opportunity to visit at greater length. Possibly the future will provide such an opportunity.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
