ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF MISSIONS

Mr. John Allen Chalk

Dear John:

I appreciated so very much the things you had to share with us at the preachers' retreat in Nashville, and have wished several times since then that I had a copy of what you said. If you have made copies of this lecture or plan to I would appreciate it very much if you would send me one. If you have decided not to reproduce it, I understand.

Last week Dr. Gurganus and I at the invitation of Jim Bill McInteer conducted a three-day mission workshop for leaders of the church in Nashville. It was a real blessing to be with the brethren there.

If I can be of any assistance to you at any time please let me know.

Sincerely,

Phil Elkins
