The Honorable Joe L. Evins
House Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Congressman Evins:

I appreciated your recent and prompt reply to my inquiry about the secret report presented the President some weeks ago concerning possible racial violence. Any material that you happen to notice concerning the problems of our metropolitan areas, I would appreciate receiving.

My special concern in this letter is to recommend for your consideration as nomination to Page in the House of Representatives young Mr. Willis Leroy Harris. "Billy" Harris is a member of this congregation. His father has been dead for a number of years and his mother has worked diligently to send him to school. He has made above average grades at Central High School, has been a star athlete, as well as being an excellent Christian young man.

Billy is a senior in high school this year, which means that you may have no opportunity between now and next fall when he will be going to college. If any arrangements can be made, I would consider it a personal favor to allow him this unique opportunity.

Our best wishes for your good health and continued service to our district.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
