Dear Merle:

I can't thank you enough for driving me over to Lubbock for the lectureship this week. I appreciated our opportunity to be together, and I look forward to many more pleasant associations through the years to come. Thank you for all your help.

Enclosed are the 25 prints you requested. Also notice the bill has been enclosed, and the check should be sent to the studio and address listed on the statement.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
