Sunday Afternoon

Howdy Preacher,

I got to thinking about you and thought I'd drop in to say hello.
Karen and I went to Lexington for Thanksgiving. During this time we went to homecoming at Freed-Hardeman and I got to see the "Cookville Punch".
They were as funny as ever and were the most enjoyable part of my visit.
I am a little worried about Jerry though. He is giving Gay a ring for Christmas and I believe he is planning to stay there for the third year program.
I think this is a little foolish and I told him so but my ideas carry very little weight. What is going to happen to that boy? He is going to be a preacher but John Allen, he understands so little because he has so much. Then again you can't help but admire all the potential. I'm sorry if I'm out of line. I just felt like sounding off about it.

I am sending you a clipping from the Optimist. Now most of our friends have one or two cottage meetings apiece we are finally waking up and making a small effort. The enthusiasm is spreading like wild fire I just hope we don't convert everyone in Abilene before you get here.

Karen and I are having a problem with our Baptist lady. Anything we believe is all right and she won't ask questions or get into a discussion. She is just so indifferent. Do you have any suggestions? I am not sure she would make a good church member anyway. Maybe she would do all right in the church member class but she'd probably be a lousy Christian. HA.

My parents are letting me fly home as a Christmas present. I'll leave next Friday the 13th. I'm so excited.
I want to work at the House of the Carpenter this summer and I guess I'll tell my folks about it while I'm home.
Be thinking about me. They will want me home this summer. What do you think about the House of the Carpenter or Camp Shiloh?

John Allen, I hope you have a wonderful holiday season. I hope you get to be with your family a little.
Karen says hello and sends greetings, too.
Say - how does it feel to have ones picture on the cover of a well-known magazine? Getting to be rather popular aren't you?

I've got to hump. Take care and know that these two Texans are thinking of you and praying for you - Linda
