Mr. Jesse Garrett, Custodian
State Prison
Station A West
Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Jesse:

I am glad to hear that you are busy with your new work and believe that you will find a lot of satisfaction in working at the State Prison. It may also be an excellent deterrent for a life of crime on your own part. Seriously, I know that you will find many opportunities to be helpful to people that are in need.

My radio program is heard every Sunday on station WSIX at 8:30 p.m. It is also heard on WMAK, but I am not sure of the time. I do hope you are getting to attend services every Sunday. It will be important for you as it is for all of us to worship regularly.

My best wishes are yours.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
